LA CHOLA POBLETE

The work of La Chola Poblete (Guaymallén, Mendoza, Argentina, 1989) includes watercolor paintings, oil landscapes, bread sculptures and iron structures, which build, not without tension and violence, a multi-part bidimensional installation that reproduces, in a key of denunciation and vindication, the dynamics of the cult. Taking up again the tools and formats around which she built her own language and iconography, La Chola intervenes in historical and contemporary imaginaries to explore the ambiguities and undefinable zones of the narrative of the past and the current political discourse. As if she knew that even in the stereotyping and exoticization of the original peoples, their mythical force survives, the artist uses her own body and invents her own mythograms, in graphic interventions that, between the delicacy of drawing and the power of branding, save not only their history, but also their desire for the present. She lives and works in Buenos Aires.

Highlights among La Chola's recent solo shows include Guaymallén (Palais Populaire, Berlin, 2023), Pap Art (Kunsthalle Lissabon, Lisbon, 2023) and Ejercicios del llanto (Museo Moderno, Buenos Aires, 2022). La Chola was included in Stranieri Ovunque – Foreigners Everywhere, the main exhibition at Biennale Arte curated by Adriano Pedrosa (Venice, 2024), during which she was awarded a Special Mention, and took part of the experimental development platform for transdisciplinary artists Laboratorio de Acción (Complejo Teatral de Buenos Aires, 2019), MARCO Arte Foco (Buenos Aires, 2018), and studied visual arts at Universidad Nacional de Cuyo (Mendoza, Argentina, 2009-2014).
